FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT

What does it do?

Gives you the right to obtain information held by Commonwealth Ministers, Departments and most statutory bodies (these bodies are called agencies under the Act).

Requires Commonwealth Government agencies to make available to members of the public:

- information about agencies, their functions and operations
- information about rules and practices which are used in making decisions which affect you.

Gives you a legal right to:

- see non exempt documents held by agencies, and
- appeal against a decision not to grant access to a document.

What documents can you see?

The Act gives you the right to see documents lodged on or after 1 December 1977, or earlier if you need them to understand another document you have already.

Documents include files, reports, computer printouts, maps, plans, photographs, tape recordings, films and videotapes.

Documents which are available for purchase under the Patents Act 1990, the Trade Marks Act 1995 or the Designs Act 1906 are not available under the Freedom of Information Act (Section 12 refers)

How do you apply?

Requests for access to documents must:

- Be in writing
- Provide sufficient information to enable identification of the documents requested
- Specify an address in Australia where notices can be sent and
- Be accompanied by the application fee (currently $30.00) or specify an IP Australia account to which the charges will be posted.

Requests for documents should be addressed to IP Australia, PO Box 200 Woden, ACT 2606, or faxed to 02 6283 7999

GUIDE TO THE USE OF THIS JOURNAL

The Australian Official Journal of Patents (AOJP) reports all major events and actions which take place during the life cycle of an Australian patent and provides certain details of these actions as they relate to the patent or patent application involved. This guide sets out to teach the reader how to use the journal to access this information.

While there are many possible actions in the life of a patent, the majority of actions reported relate to the following events, which are the main stages in the progression of a patent application to a sealed patent:

(i) FILING -

This is the act of making an application. When the application is first filed certain details are published.

(ii) OPEN-TO-PUBLIC-INSPECTION (OPI) -

Approximately 18 months after first filing of an Australian or a corresponding foreign application, certain application documents, including the complete specification, become available to the public (Open-to-Public-Inspection or "OPI"). Relevant application details are published.

(iii) NATIONAL PHASE ENTRY (NPE) -

For an application filed under the PCT to have full effect, it must move from the international phase of processing into the National phase of processing, by complying with the requirements of s.89(3). For PCT applications that were filed after 1 January 2004 which have entered the National Phase certain details are published.

(iv) ACCEPTANCE -

This is the Commissioner's acceptance of a patent application. Once the Commissioner has accepted a patent application, certain details of the application are published in the AOJP. Notice of opposition may be filed within three months of advertisement of acceptance.

(v) OPPOSITION -

If an opposition action is commenced against the grant of the patent, the six-figure acceptance number and the name of the opponent are published. If the opposition is to the Certification of an Innovation Patent, the patent number and the name of the opponent are published.

(vi) SEALING -

Most accepted applications are not opposed. These proceed to sealing and become granted patents. Of the few that are opposed (less than 1%) most of these, after resolution of the opposition, proceed to sealing and become granted patents. Sealed patents are simply listed in order of their application number.

(vii) CERTIFICATION-

This is the Commissioner's Certification after passing examination of a previously granted unexamined Innovation Patent.

In addition to the actions related to these stages, other actions reported include: assignments, lapsing or withdrawal of applications and ceasing or expiry of patents, voluntary amendments, extensions of time for certain actions and registration of licences.

How To Identify Information Using "INID" Numbers

Patents are published in many different countries and in many different languages. As a result, finding the information that you want (eg the filing date) on a patent document or in a journal can be quite difficult. There is an international system operating, however, which codifies this information in an unambiguous way, by assigning a specific number to each piece of information about the history of a patent. These numbers are called the Internationally agreed Numbers for the Identification of Data or INID numbers.

These numbers appear on all published patents and abstracts and are used throughout this journal to identify particular items of information. For example, the date on which a document is filed has the INID number (22), while the name of the applicant has the INID number of (71). These numbers are always expressed in parentheses and always immediately precede the information to which they relate. For example:

(22) 12.10.91

means that the filing date of the document which contains this reference is 12 October 1991. Learning the INID numbers for the information you want will help you find it quickly and easily.

A complete list of the INID numbers and the items to which they relate is provided at the end of this Guide.

How Australian Patent Documents are Numbered

Patent applications in Australia are assigned a number at the filing stage in their processing. Each Australian application will retain the same number throughout its life, though different numbers may be associated to the application. The number will incorporate the year of lodgment then a unique number within the appropriate range.

There will be number ranges for types of patents:

100,000 – 199,999	Innovation
200,000 – 799,999	Standard
800,000 – 899,999	Petty
900,000 – 999,999	Provisional

When searching for information and ordering documents it is vital that you understand the numbering systems.

1. Provisional Applications are given a ten-figure number

e.g. 2002901123

A provisional application number is identified by the INID number (21).

2. Complete and Innovation Applications are also given a ten-figure application number

e.g. 2002200345 Standard
2002100123 Innovation

There are prefixes applied to this number which indicate whether the application has been accepted:

A document corresponding to an unaccepted application has the prefix, AU-A; eg AU-A-2002200234.
A document corresponding to an accepted application carries the prefix AU-B; eg AU-B-2002200234.

Users need to be aware that an accepted document may differ from the corresponding unaccepted document. This is because amendment may occur between first publication (OPI) and second publication (acceptance).

A ten-figure application number is identified by the INID number (21).

NOTE: When ordering any patent document from us, whether accepted or not, please quote the ten-figure application number preceded by the appropriate prefix.

Arrangement of Information in the Journal

For each of the categories

- (i) Provisional Applications Filed,
- (ii) Complete Applications Filed,
- (iii) Applications Open to Public Inspection
- (iv) Applications Entered National Phase
- (v) Applications Accepted, and
- (vi) Innovation Patent Certified.

The Journal lists the information published in that category in an alphabetical Name Index list based on the name of the applicant. These indices are useful if you wish to find information about applications made by a particular applicant.

In addition to the Name Index there is provided, for each of these categories, a Numerical Index. This index lists the applications either in order of their five-figure Application Numbers, in the case of complete applications filed and applications OPI, or in order of their six-figure Document Number in the case of accepted applications. It provides, for each number, the name of the applicant. These indices are useful if you wish to track the progress of a particular patent application.

There are also IPC Indices provided for applications which are OPI, for applications which have entered national phase and for applications which have been accepted. IPC stands for International Patent Classification. Each IPC "mark" is an alpha-numerical representation of a particular area of technology. These indices are in order of IPC mark, and within each mark provide either the five-figure application numbers of the application which are now OPI or the six-figure numbers of the cases now accepted. These indices are useful if you wish to check on patent activity in a particular technology.

Using the Indices

1. To Find Patent Information if You Know the Name of the Applicant.

You will notice at each stage of following application through that all applications are in alphabetical order of Applicant, not inventor.

2. To Find Information About a Patent Application if You Know its Number.

Use the appropriate numerical index. This will give you the name of the applicant from the number. You will then need to use the appropriate Name Index as above to find out other information about the Patent Application you are interested in.

The following Numerical Indices are available:

- A) Provisional Applications filed.
- B) Complete Applications filed.
- C) Innovation Applications filed.
- D) Applications Open to Public Inspection.
- E) Applications Entered National Phase
- F) Applications Accepted.
- G) Innovation Patent Certified

3. To Find Information About Patent Documents in the Area of Technology in which You are Interested if You Know the International Patent Classification Mark for that Area.

All patent applications are classified according to their subject matter using the International Patent Classification (IPC). Although the system is very detailed and covers all technologies, knowledge of the IPC marks of the technologies you are interested in will allow you to find patent documents in these technologies quite easily. To identify the IPC marks of technologies you are interested in, you can inspect relevant documentation in any of IP Australia's state offices.

The indices to use are

- A) Applications OPI - IPC Index
- B) Applications accepted - IPC Index
- C) Applications Entered National Phase – IPC Index

These indices give you the numbers of the applications which are either OPI, Entered National Phase or Accepted and are listed in order of their IPC marks.

Once you have the numbers of the documents that interest you, consult the relevant Number Index (see 2. above) to find the applicant's name, and then the Name Index (see 1. above) to find out the details of that application.

Abstract of DecisionDECISION OF A DELEGATE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF PATENTS

Application : No. 755298 in the name of IAN MURRAY CATFORD, COLIN CHARLES CATFORD and ROBERT CRAIG CATFORD

Title : STOCK HANDLING DEVICE

Action : Opposition under sec. 59 of the Patents Act 1990 by STOCKSTILL LIMITED

Decision : Issued 29 April 2005.

Abstract

The invention was for an animal handling apparatus with particular applicability as a table for supporting a sheep while it is being shorn. The table is especially advantageous when used in conjunction with an electrical device developed by the opponent which could be attached to the sheep in order to pass an electrical current through the sheep to immobilize it. The two pieces of apparatus are apparently referred to collectively as a shearing machine.

The opponent alleged entitlement to the invention on the basis it had been a joint effort between the opponent and the applicants (who were also the inventors) and that there had been a joint venture arrangement with the applicants.

It was held that the opponent had not established that there had been a contribution from anyone else other than the present inventors that had had a material effect upon the invention. Moreover, while a somewhat vague informal joint venture agreement did exist between the parties, there was no evidence to suggest that it extended to intellectual property rights.

The opponent also alleged invalidity of the application on the grounds of novelty, inventive step, section 40 and manner of manufacture. Novelty and inventive step were argued on the basis of paper citations as well as prior use. The novelty and inventive step grounds were upheld in respect of some claims but not others. Although the wording of claim 1 was such as to cause construing the claim to be less than straightforward, the ground of non-compliance with section 40 was not upheld. The ground of manner of manufacture was not pursued at the hearing and was not upheld.

The applicants were allowed 60 days from the date of the decision in which to file proposed amendments to overcome the deficiencies identified in the decision.

Costs were awarded against the applicants.

Abstract of Decision

DECISION OF A DELEGATE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF PATENTS

Application : No. 689399 in the name of Colin Leslie Young

Title : Stomach-action molluscicides

Action : Opposition by W.Neudorff GmbH KG to amendments under section 104, and the final determination of an opposition under section 59

Decision : Issued 02 May 2005.

Abstract

The amendments are allowable.

The amendments do not overcome the deficiencies noted in the original opposition. Claims still lack novelty and inventive step.

The applicant given a further opportunity to propose amendments.
